- Bishop Campbell says “We can’t love what we don’t know.” How does relate to our own faith? How does this impact our preparation of our children for the sacraments?

- Of the four suggestions for forming Catholic identity in our children (ritual, images, storytelling, religious literacy), which method of living your faith “speaks” most to you? Why?

(please turn page over for additional questions)

- We see our faith expressed in many ways; how much of your faith is expressed in your home in the things your child sees around him/her or in the things you do as a family? Share what you currently have/do. Then share ideas for what you might add to your home or begin to do as a family.
